

Another son of NP Mill Iron 1110. This was, I believe, the last year the International was held in Chicago. The following year it moved to Louisville, KY. I had a set of 'sheep-head' clippers kicked through my lower lip at this show and took myself to a hospital emergency room to get stitched up [footnote of little consequence, but a memory].

Note is from Purdue's, Dean Earl Butz.

From the desk of EARL L. BUTZ

12-14

Herschel

Congratulations to my favorite farmer.

Earl.

Friday Evening, December 13, 1968

Winning Bull

At the strong register of merit Hereford show the recent International Livestock Show in Chicago, Hunt Bros., Battle Ground, and Ted Hunt, Lafayette, exhibited the first-place two-year-old bull. Shown with the winner, HB Iron Deputy 6219, is Ted Hunt. (Photo by American Hereford Association)