Kansas City, Missouri -- The theme, "A Dawning of a New Era," was well represented among the 230 juniors from 23 states that attended the 26th American Junior Hereford Association's annual convention held in Kansas City. The three-day conference featured guest speakers, award presentations, national contest competition and election of AJHA board of directors and officers.
