

These were cattle being exhibited at the National Western in Denver, 1961. The bull on the right was a Zato Heir. He was Reserve Grand Champion at the International in Chicago the previous December, and won his class at Denver.

