Position of cows in the picture are represented by the numbers at the left.

1. A heifer fed for my 1947 Beef Heifer Project. Bred by Stoner Stock Farm, Ladoga, Ind.
2. A heifer fed for my 1947 Beed Heifer Project. Bred by Stoner Stock Farm, Ladoga, Ind. This heifer was fourth in her class at the 1947 4-H State Fair.
3. A bull calf to be fed for the 1949 shows. Bred by myself.
4. A cow that I purchased in a State Hereford consignment sale. Bred by Stoner Stock Farm. This cow is the dam of the steer that my brother showed in 1948.
5. A heifer fed for my 1946 Beef Heifer Project. Bred by J. L. Hess, Oxford, Indiana. This cow is the dam of heifer listed as number 8 on this page.
6. A heifer fed for my 1946 Beef Heifer Project. Bred by J. L. Hess, Oxford, Indiana. This cow was third in her class at the 1946 4-H State Fair. This cow is the dam of heifer listed as number 9 on this page.
7. A bull calf to be fed for the 1949 shows. Bred by myself.
8. A heifer fed for the 1948 Beef Heifer Project. Bred by myself.
9. A heifer fed for the 1948 Beef Heifer Project. Bred by myself. This heifer was first in her class at the State 4-H Fair.

These cows, heifers, and calves plus the heifer awarded me compose my purebred Hereford herd. The two bull calves and the two small heifers are all sired by Vagabond Glory. This bull was owned by J.W. Van Natta of Battle Ground, Indiana.
 Mr. Van Natta has graciously bred my cows for me. I have two more calves sired by this bull and one more calf to come this fall. This calf/sire is TT Triumphant 71.
